

2010 Tournament Review

It's time to set your schedule for the 2010 Women's Golf Council of Southern California Saturday Tournaments. As in the past six years, the WGCSC will return to Trilogy at La Quinta. There is no better place to play golf than in the desert in early April! Oak Creek Golf Course in Irvine will provide a perfect tournament site for early June and in July, we visit the Golf Course in Coronado. The season will end with a Two-Day Partner Eclectic at San Vicente Golf Club in Ramona. Council events are open to any female golfer with a verifiable USGA index. Entry forms will be available online at the WGCSC website and/or sent automatically if you've previously provided an email address. A brief description of each event follows. Mark your calendars now!

Questions: (909) 592-1281, extension 204

April 10, 2010 – The Golf Club @ La Quinta

Former home of the Skins Game and several WGCSC events, this is the Council's most popular venue and will open the 2010 season. Set at the base of the majestic Santa Rosa Mountains of Palm Desert, this beautiful 18-hole championship course insures challenge and reward for players of all skill levels. This format is Two Best Balls of Four with a 1:00 p.m. shotgun start.

60-151 Trilogy Parkway, La Quinta, 92253

June 5, 2010 – Oak Creek Golf Club

Oak Creek Golf Course is set against the majestic backdrop of the Saddleback Mountains. Oak Creek provides one of the most beautiful settings among all Southern California golf courses, making it a course that will inspire you every time you play.

One Golf Club Drive, Irvine, 92618

July 31, 2010 -- Coronado Golf Club

Opened in 1957 Coronado continues to reign as one of the finest golf courses in Southern California. It is an 18-hole par 72 course with dramatic views of the Coronado Bridge, Hotel Del Coronado and San Diego Bay.

2000 Visalia Row, Coronado, 92118

October 23 & 24, 2010 -- San Vicente Golf Club

Nestled in the rolling hills of Ramona, the San Vicente Golf Resort is truly a great getaway from the stresses of city life. This Ted Robinson designed course offers much variety, challenges players of all levels and is located just 20 minutes from the Barona Casino. Enjoy the final Council event of 2010, a Two-Day Partner Eclectic. Saturday shotgun at 1:00 p.m. and Sunday tee times begin at 9:00 a.m.

24157 San Vicente Road, Ramona, 92065